RUPERT GOLDSWORTHY GALLERY, formerly located in Berlin, Germany has re-located to New York's new gallery district, Chelsea. In the second exhibition at this location the gallery is proud to present new work by the artist Lutz Bacher. The exhibition runs from 18th ~~March~~ ^{April} to 16th May, 1998. There will be an opening reception for the artist on Saturday, 18th April, from 6 - 8pm.

Lutz Bacher presents the video installation "Olympiad" at the gallery. This work is the record of a walk through the Olympic Stadium in Berlin in June 1997. "Olympiad" displays the sporadic signal glitches, stoppages, tracking problems, burnouts and other artifacts of a corrupted tape. Paradoxically, this degradation intensifies at the same time it disturbs the classical aspirations of this haunted site.

"Olympiad" is shown courtesy of Pat Hearn Gallery, New York. Concurrently Pat Hearn Gallery features a year-long video installation by Lutz Bacher, "A Closed Circuit Installation".

Following this exhibition, from 16th ^{May} ~~April~~ - 16th ^{June} ~~May~~, the gallery will feature a show by Steven Evans.
